Two-Spirit scholar and community leader Harlan Pruden, to join with Two-Spirit members from the local Treaty 7 community for a deeper look into right relations from a two-spirit lense and how we can all step into reconcili-action across Turtle Island!

Rev. Emmy Kegler, founder, and editor of QueerGrace.com and author of One Coin Found: How God's Love Stretches to the Margins, will be sharing her amazing story of becoming a queer minister hailing from the Twin and leading us in a workshop on how to, despite how scripture may have been used against you, fall in love with scripture all over again. (Emmy's public talk on Friday evening will be open to the public for a ticketed fee, and will be included in the full registration fee for conference attendees.)

Calgary's very own Mike Morrison @mikesbloggity from Mike's Bloggity blog will be helping us learn how to navigate divisive discourse, and how to speak up and Love out-loud and online with media training.

We are presenting a staged reading of Billy Cowan's play Care Takers, an ideological face-off between a teacher and a principle around the bullying of a gay student, followed by a panel discussion with local teachers and GSA community organizers, we are looking to find ways to bridge the divide in our communities. (Care Takers will be open to the public for a ticketed fee, and will be included in the full registration or all day Saturday fee for conference attendees.)
